"Sir,

In forwarding herewith for information and kind re-
-turn the letter received from the Registrar, Resident's office, requesting to send 30 extra convicts, in addition to the 20 that are now going there, I have the honor to state that no prisoners are available, as a large gang of 130 pri -soners is now being sent to the City. This morning 10 C.
& M prisoners have been stopped from the City gang and sent to the Residency. If all the 30 required are to be sent, the City gang will have to be reduced still more. I request your instructions in the matter.

I must further inform you that the garden gang is also reduced below its necessary requirements by reason of these large gangs being sent out, and to keep up the supply of vegetables, I am compelled to stop 20 men from the City gang, and if the Residency has to have an increased gang, I do not know where to get the men."

2. I may be permitted to draw attention to the fact that my object in inviting the attention of His Highness' Govern--ment in the first place to the question of extra-mural la--bour and to the limiting of it,was to secure that the in--dustries in the Jails should not be interrupted,and the efforts of Superintendents nullified by the sudden withdrawal of large numbers of prisoners for out-door jobs- as well as to prevent the formation by the prisoners of the lazy habits which are the inevitable result of desultory out-door work.

Correspondence ending with letter No. 1404, dated the 22nd September 1906, from the pector-General of Prisons in Mysore, forwarding a statement showing the number of cons that may without prejudice to the Jail industries be sent out for extramural labor.

No. J. 1668-73—Pris. 33-05-15, dated Bangalore, 18th December 1906.

Order thereon.—The list submitted by the Inspector-General is approved; "Gordon Park" will be substituted for "Cole's Garden" as directed in Govern- t Order No. J. 336-337—Pris. 62-05-2, dated the 3rd August 1906. The list h this modification is appended to this order.

2. An important consideration in the disposal of convict labor is that the Jail dustries should suffer no interruption. Adequate provision should be made for is, and only the convicts that remain over and above the number required for these dustries should be distributed for extramural labor. The number of prisoners ent to each of the places mentioned in the list may therefore be decreased by the uperintendent of the Jails if the Jail industries require it. The number may also e decreased, but not increased, on the requisition of the officers in charge of the places mentioned in the list.

3. The present orders on the subject of extramural labor must be understood to have superseded the existing rule, viz., Rule 222 of the Mysore Jail Manual. In the revised manual now under compilation the rule may be modified as follows :—
